Victoria Scanlon Appointed Organizational Treasurer of Florida Council for Community Mental Health

PUNTA GORDA, Fla. (August 13, 2018) – Established more than 40 years ago in 1976, The Florida Council for Community Mental Health (FCCMH or the Council) is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) statewide association of community-based mental health and substance abuse treatment providers. The number one priority for the FCCMH and its member organizations is to ensure that Floridians have access to a comprehensive and effective system of coordinated mental health and substance abuse treatment services.

Charlotte Behavioral Health Care is proud to announce that its CEO, Victoria Scanlon, LMHC, has been appointed as the Council’s new Organizational Treasurer.

Scanlon has worked as a clinician and administrator in community behavioral health for over 20 years. Her clinical career focus created a passion in treating adults with serious mental illnesses, emphasis on criminal justice diversion, and eliminating suicide. She joined Charlotte Behavioral Health Care in 2006 as Clinical Director, and quickly assumed oversight of Quality Management. She was then promoted to Chief Operating Officer in 2007 and remained in that position for nine years, until assuming the role of Chief Executive Officer in May, 2016. Scanlon holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Psychology and an Educational Specialist/Master’s in Education with a specialty of Community Counseling/Mental Health Counseling from the University of Florida.

About Charlotte Behavioral Health Care
